NOTE

THE examples of fine Oriental Rugs, Tapestries and Hangings which comprise this catalogue were held for a period of time by H. MICHAELYAN INC., having been consigned to them by various estates and individuals as a result of their finding their new and smaller homes inadequate in size or location to accommodate these possessions.

As a consequence the firm of H. MICHAELYAN INC. has decided to speed up the matter of liquidating these rugs and returning to the various owners a fair proportion of their initial investment.

The public dispersal which follows this decision offers to the buying public a fine Bektash-Ghiordez rug which dates from the middle of the XIX Century and comes from North Western Anatolia, the weave probably originating near Smyrna in Asia-Minor, Catalogue Number 175; a rare specimen of an antique Bergama woven in Western Asia-Minor, Catalogue Number 81; a rare antique Beshir, Catalogue Number 188; a fine XVII Century Flemish Tapestry — "Queen Cleopatra Receiving Offerings", Catalogue Number 189; an antique Chinese Hanging embroidered in colorful silk on red background depicting a Princess and retinue in Royal Garden, Catalogue Number 92; as well as other choice examples of artistic rug-weaving.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

The highest bidder shall be the buyer. If any dispute arises between two or more buyers the auctioneer shall have the righ to decide the validity of such claims and reopen the bidding should he see fit to do so.

[2]

All catalogued lots are sold at so much each piece unless otherwise announced.

[3]

The auctioneer may reject any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance and which in his opinion tends to injure the value of the article offered.

[4]

The purchasers shall give their names and address and pay down a cash deposit, or the whole of the purchase money, if required, in default of which the lot or lots so purchased shall be immediately put up again and resold if the auctioneer so decides.

[5]

The Company is most careful and painstaking in its effort to be accurate in cataloguing. However, the authenticity, accuracy of description, or condition of any lot is not guaranteed. Attention is called in the catalogue and also at the time of sale to any imperfection or defect but everything is sold "as is." There can be no recourse nor can any sale be nullified on the grounds of catalogue error or an imperfection not indicated.

[6]

If, through any cause whatsover, an article purchased cannot be delivered in as good condition as the same may have been at the time of its sale, or should any article purchased thereafter be stolen or mis-delivered, destroyed or lost, the Company is not to be held liable in any greater amount than the price paid by the purchaser.

[7]

The lots shall be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk upon the conclusion of the sale and the remainder of the purchase money shall be absolutely paid or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the Company on or before delivery: in default of which the Company will not hold itself responsible if the lots be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser.

[8]

Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited as liquidated damages; all lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be resold at public or private sale, without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such resale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, together with all charges attending the same. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the Company to enforce the contract made at this sale, without such resale if it thinks fit.

[9]

Bidding on behalf of purchasers who have transmitted to the Company a responsible order for such bidding will be undertaken without charge. The lot number and a description of the article should be given and the bidder should indicate whether the amount offered is for the lot or so much per piece. If the sender of the order is unknown to the Company a deposit should be included or reference submitted. Shipping directions should be clearly given.

[10]

The Company does not engage in the removal or shipping of goods and is in no way responsible for any damage arising in the course of packing or delivery. For the convenience of purchasers a representative of a responsible trucking concern may be seen on the premises.

[11]

Unless the sale is announced as unrestricted the right to bid is reserved by or on behalf of the seller.

[12]

All articles purchased at this sale will be subject to payment of the New York Sales Tax of two per cent (2%) on the purchase price, except where the purchaser signs the certificate required by law that this article was purchased for re-sale.

175. ANTIQUE BEKTASH-GHIORDEZ RUG
The soft magenta red panel shows a very small vase in which grows a large plant. At the upper end is a niche from which hang several lamps and below the lamp are two ewers, symbol of cleanliness. The main border of undyed wool depicts a series of crudely drawn floral sprays and at the upper end, two large and long leaf forms in brown and magenta. There is only one border which has a repeat design in blue, yellow and brown on a magenta ground. Size, 6 feet 2 inches x 4 feet

NOTE: It is probable that Bektash-Ghiordez rugs came from some place near Smyrna in Asia Minor and date from the middle of the XIX Century. Such rugs, commonly called Bektash-Ghiordez, come from Northwestern Anatolia and date from the middle of the XIX Century.
